RICHARD^{1} RICH.

Richard^{1} Rich, the ancestor of the Rich family of the Cape, came to Eastham from Dover, New Hampshire. He was a mariner, say the records, and admitted a townsman Aug. 23, 1681, it being the first notice of him upon the record of Eastham. He appears to have been a man of standing, and entitled to the prefix of "Mister." The particular spot he selected for his house lot, the writer is not informed. He evidently was married before his settlement here. His wife was Sarah Roberts, it is said by his descendants. But very little is said of him in the records. He had the description of his cattle marks entered April 12, 1686. He is mentioned as buying rights to undivided land known as "Smith's Purchase." The right of William Mayo he purchased June 3, 1686, and the right of Stephen Atwood he purchased June 29 of the same year. The tract of land known as "Smith's Purchase," and sometimes called the "Ten Pound Purchase," estimated to contain 1,000 acres, was bought of John Sipson, an Indian of Potonumecot, by Samuel Smith in behalf of the town proprietors in 1684. It extended northerly nearly across the present town of Orleans, from an east and west line between Kescayogansett and Potonumecot rivers.

Mr. Rich died early in the autumn of 1692, evidently not a very aged man. An inventory of his effects was taken by John Doane, Isaac Pepper and Richard^{2} Rich, Oct. 5, 1692. Letters to administer upon the estate were granted to Isaac Pepper and Richard^{2} Rich, the eldest son, Oct. 19, the same year. A settlement was effected April 8, 1697

The children mentioned in the settlement as surviving are 1. Richard,^{2} the eldest son, John, Sarah, Thomas, Samuel and Lydia. At this date none of the daughters had been married. Richard Rich, the son, born in 1674, went to Truro and settled. He died May 3, 1743, in the 69th year of his age. His wife Anna died May 11, 1754, aged 74. They had nine children.

2. John^{2} Rich, the younger brother, and son of Mr. Richard Rich, married Mary Treat, daughter of Rev. Samuel Treat, Dec. 10, 1700. She died Jan. 4, 1722-23. He, the same year, married Mrs. Hope Sears, widow of Richard^{3} Sears of Chatham. He settled in [Hope^{4} (Howes) Sears] [Son of Paul^{2}] that part of Eastham now Wellfleet, where he died of the small pox in 1747, which was prevalent there that year. Mr. Rich was deacon of the church and a prominent man. His daughter Hope, by second wife, born May 7, 1725, was the wife of Col. Elisha Doane, a well-known citizen of Wellfleet, who amassed wealth in the whale fishery, and was thought to have been the richest man of his time in Massachusetts. Deacon Rich had 8 children by his wife Mary. His son John, born in 1706, married Thankful^{4} Sears, daughter of Richard^{3} and Hope Sears, in 1727.

3. Thomas^{2} Rich, the third son of Mr. Richard^{1} Rich, married Mercy, daughter of Samuel Knowles, Esq., of Eastham, July 23, 1702, and settled in that part of the town now Orleans, near the late John Doane's house. He had nine children. His sons were Thomas, James, Joseph, David, John and Samuel. He died the middle of the last century. He had land granted by the town, in 1702, on the south side of the way, near the cedar swamp and pond.

4. Sarah^{2} Rich, daughter of Mr. Richard^{1} Rich, married, Feb. 25, 1702-3, Isaac Baker of Eastham, and settled at Billingsgate, now Wellfleet. They had six children, viz: Simeon, Samuel, Isaac, Joseph, Richard and Sarah.

"In the name of the Lord, Amen. By the contents of this present public instrument be it known to all whom it may concern, that, on this, the 30th day of October of the year 1643, about four o'clock in the afternoon, appeared in person before me, Jacob Fransez van Merwen, notary public, admitted by the Provincial Court of Holland, on the nomination of the Honorable Gentlemen of the Court of the city of Leyden, residing in the aforesaid city, and before the hereinafter mentioned witnesses, the honorable Bredgen (Bridget) Alexanders d(aughter), widow of D. Johannes Robbens of blessed memory, when living pastor of the English congregation within this city, dwelling here in the Engelse Poort, being of sound body, able to walk and stand, in full possession and exercise of her mind, senses and memory, so far as outwardly appears, who, considering the common weakness and frailty of the life of mortal man on this earth, who passes as a shadow, and is wholly subject unto the common guilt of nature, namely death, and nothing being more uncertain than the time and hour thereof, therefore being desirous to anticipate the uncertain hour of ~~death by way of a testamentary disposition~~, and therefore not wishing to depart this earth, without previous disposal of her earthly possessions, graciously granted unto her by the Almighty, has of her own free xxx inclination and will, as she publicly declared, without inducement or misleading of anyone whatsoever, first committing her immortal soul into the gracious and merciful hands of God Almighty, her Creator and Savior, and her body to a Christian burial in the earth, revoking and cancelling by these presents, all and such wills, codicils or testaments heretofore made, executed and drawn up by her, not willing or desiring that these should be followed or executed in any point whatsoever, disposing anew, has first and before all bequeathed, given and ordered, as she does by these presents, to Jan and Maria, both children of D. Johannes Robbens, doctor medicinae, residing in England, her son, each a silver spoon. Furthermore to Maria and Martha, both children of Bredgen Robbens, her daughter, also each a silver spoon, besides, to the wife of Isaac Robbens, her son, residing in New England, the long cloak and skirt of black cloth of appearer, also to Dr. Johannes Robbens, her son aforesaid, the Rhenish Testament. Furthermore, she, appearer and testator, declares, she bequeathes and gives in advance by these presents to Isaac Robbens, her son aforesaid, and to Veer Robbens, her daughter, each a sum of forty guilders of 41 groots Flemish a piece, and this in equalization and adjustment of an equal sum, which Bredgen Robbens, also her daughter, has enjoyed from her, the appearer and testator, out of the legacy of her father. Moreover only to Veer Robbens aforesaid the silver cup of her, the appearer, together with all the furniture and household goods, with everything appertaining thereto, which she, the appearer, has bought or made in the last four years before this date, and whatever she may buy or make after this day till her death. Being the opinion and wish of xxx appearer, that her heirs shall believe her daughter Veer Robbens on her simple word and evidence, what and how much furniture and household goods shall have been made and bought by her, the appearer and testator, during the last four years and after this date till her, the appearers death, without compelling her daughter to confirm this by oath, expressly forbidding this, and discharging her aforesaid daughter therefrom. And lastly, she, appearer and testator, bequeathes in advance and in addition to Bredgen and Veer Robbens, her daughters aforesaid, all the clothes, both linen and woolen, which she has for her personal use and convenience, except the long cloak and skirt of black cloth, heretofore given to the wife of Isaac Robbens, her son. Furthermore she, appearer and testator aforesaid, declares that Dr. Johannes Robbens, her son has already enjoyed and received, in the form of properties in land and goods lying in England and money provided him, much more from her late husband, than her other three children can receive or enjoy from her, appearer and testator. Being therefore the express will, opinion and wish of appearer that he, Dr. Johannes Robbens, her son, shall surrender all claims upon her estate, and not participate in it, without drawing or enjoying anything further, small or great. The appearer and testator aforesaid declares and institutes, by these presents, her son, or in case of his prior death, his child or children to be her private coheir in all goods aforesaid, which he has received and enjoyed.

"(And if her, her son, or in case of his prior death, his children, are not satisfied with this, her dispostion, but should act or try to act against it in any way, she, appearer, above-mentioned, declared it to be her opinion and wish, that he, her son, or in case of his prior death, his children, shall be required to bring into the common estate of the appearer, all and such goods as he, her son, has enjoyed of her the testator or of her husband of blessed memory, which having been done, he, her son, or in case of his prior death, his children, shall participate in all the properties of the entire estate (the legacies and grants in advance having been subtracted), as well as her, the appearer's other children, instituting by these presents him, her son, or in case of his prior death, his children (in this case anew disposing) in a just fourth part of her estate and goods, which she will leave behind.)

"And of all the other goods which she, appearer and testator above-mentioned, shall vacate and leave behind at the time of her death, she, appearer and testator, declared to have made, named and instituted as her only and sole heirs, as she does by the presents, Isaac Robbens, above-mentioned, her son, with Brechgen and Veer Robbens, her two daughters, each a just third part, and in case of their prior death or of any one of them, their respective child or children, which shall be left behind, by representation and this in the place of their parents, previously deceased. All of which she, appearer and testator, above named, said and declared to be her last and final testament, which she orders and wishes to have full force and effect, whether as solemn testament, codicil, fideicommis, gift for reason of death, or any other donations or dispositions, and as may be most suitable in a last will, notwithstanding some faults or omissions. She, appearer and testator, desires, with lawful stipulation to that end committed to my hands as a notary and a public person, bearing cognisance of all the aforesaid, that this be made and executed as a public instrument, in one or more copies of the usual form. This one, drawn up and executed within the above named city of Leyden, at my, the notary's house and office, her on the Langebrugge, opposite the Wolsteech. Present Steven Buttervelt, bookseller, and Jan Meester, sayworker, asked and called for this purpose, with me, the notary, as trustworthy witnesses, who declared they know the appearer well and that she is the person hereinbefore named and mentioned."

William Pearte and had: William, Thomas, Originall and John; and since they mention a son-in-law, Roger Lawson, there must have been another dau. Oh, yes, Rev. John & Bridget had 7 ch: Ann, John, Bridget, Isaac, Mercy, Fear and Jacob. Record of their marriage reads: "Mr. John Robynson and Mistress Bridget Whyte, February 15, 1603-4." Book says: The "Mr." and "Mistress" are plainly and distinctly written, indicating that the parties were considered of importance. The entries of the weddings of ordinary parishioners give only the bare names."

Also from same book: ① "In 1910, Rev. Walter H. Burges, B.A., of Plymouth, England, in his researches in the "District Probate Registry of the County of Yorkshire, England," proved from wills that he found on record there, that he had discovered the parentage of the Rev. John Robinson, Pastor of the Pilgrim Fathers. Thereupon the Robinson Genealogical Society requested Mr. Burgess to obtain certified copies of such wills, which he did, and the society gladly paid him the fee of five pounds one shilling ($25)." ② "On the 4th of August, 1921, The Robinson Genealogical Society received a pamphlet from Dr. Rendel Harris, 54 Wood Whally Range, Manchester, England, having the title of "Three Unknown Documents Concerning The Pilgrim Fathers in Holland," by A. Eekhof, D.D., Professor in Leyden University." Published by "Martinus Nijhoff, The Hague, 1920" ...... In the first document we have nothing more nor less than the personal signature of John Robinson, the pastor of the Pilgrim Fathers, whose signature until now has been wholly unknown ......

John Robinson

The fact that this document has also the personal signatures of Thomas Brewer and William Jepson increases its value." ③ "The second document contains the signature of William Bradford, the historian of the Pilgrims and the later governor of New England. It was drawn up in the very last days before his departure from Leyden to Delfshaven, from whense, as is well known, he took passage in the 'Speedwell' and from there sailed in the 'Mayflower' to New England, where he helped to found New Plymouth, the colony of the Pilgrim Fathers." ④ "The third document is the last will or testament of Bridget Robinson, widow of John Robinson, important among other reasons, because here we learn a number of facts about her children who were yet living in 164 ."

So what? Anyway, there it all is. Help yourself! Oh, yes - Rev. John's ✓ father was b. 1550 and per. his father was Christopher who was living 1571.

Cannot find Hannah Robinson who m. 31 N. 1715, Nathan, s of Nathan & Eliz. (Abbot) Stevens. Besides the R. Gen. (source of the earlier & other typed info) I also checked through "Robinson Genealogy, descendants of Isaac Robinson and Moses Robinson" - VOL. TWO (1933) (publ. by the Robinson Genealogical Society. The (typed info) book is Vol. ONE but I used Roman numeral!) And "A Historical Sketch of the Robinson Family of the Line of Ebenezer Robinson" by [illegible] Robinson, Ph. D. (1903). So that adds 3 more titles to our list of books researched!

Oct. 17th

Never under estimate the power of a woman - or - the pen is mightier than the sword - or - how come I received your letter last Friday morning and read about your little old thunder storm - and in less than an hour we got one of the roughest little old thunder storms it has been our pleasure (?) to endure for a long time? Don't believe I ever saw it get so black short of an eclipse!! It was so dark that even with the light on it didn't seem to help much - and when the power went off it really didn't seem very much darker!! The thunder was vociferous, if I may say so (and I just did) and the lightning was nasty, to say the least. Several hours later we had a small encore of the first storm. Next time you have a thunder shower down there - keep it to yourself!!! We don't need any more like that.

Came home one day to find tiny specks of soot all over the kitchen table. What a mess. Then discovered it was all over the floor, too. Still have not figured out just why it happened since the stove and stove pipe were thoroughly cleaned just before we started up the heater this fall. At least it was no where near as bad as the mess you had one time. There are times when I wonder if this electric heating is as good as is claimed but I'm sure it would cost more. And I don't like being too independent on electricity. Sometimes it lets you down as in hurricanes, etc. Speakin of hurricanes - Daisy did no damage to speak of in this county but some of the other counties along the coastline got plastered, so we heard in Augusta yesterday at the CD meeting.

Tsk, tsk and again tsk, tsk. Shame on you both! And let that be a lesson to you and all that sort of thing. Rude awakening wasn't it? And sort of expensive, too. As to the salary arrears - there's no rule about coming right out and asking for it, is there?

Thanks for the recipe. If the price of meat keeps climbing the way it has been doing lately I don't know that I can even afford to buy the poorest grade of hamburger!!! Maybe we should raise our own beef!

If all these nice people who suddenly have become so enthused over genea would just stay home on the one day a month I can get to state library - it would be a big help to me! The place was jammed yesterday and I only had 2 hours so I didn't get much accomplished. So many books were in use or misplaced or something. I did get at those general books at the small table behind the last row of stacks. In fact, I had to use that table and what

On 7 July 163 Isaac & Margaret joined the church over which the Rev. John Lothrop ministered, "having a letter idsmissive from the church att Plimouth." Isaac built the 29th house in Scituate the same year. In 1637 he built a new House, which was the 49th. Jan. 1, 1637/8 he had land granted him by the Plymouth Colony Court lying between North & South Rivers. In 1639 he removed with Mr. Lothrop and his church to Barnstable. His house lot, containing 8 acres of upland and the salt meadow adjoining, was on the north side of the county road and was bounded westerly by Calves Pasture Lane. Governor Hinckley's "new House" was on the opposite side of the road, a little farther west.

Isaac Robinson attended the meetings of the Quakers, "to reduce them from the errors of theire ways." He wrote a letter to the magistrates, being convinced that the laws that had been enacted against Quakers were unjust. Injustice to him resulted and with Jonathan Hatch he went to Falmouth in 1660-61. (Called Succanessett)

Isaac 0 in 1631; was a freeman in Scituate in 1633; in Barnstable in 1639. He was disfranchised by Gov. Prince in 1659 on acct. of his opposition to the laws against the Quakers, and for his sympathy with that sect, but was restored to his civil rights by Gov. Winslow in 1673. He removed from Barnstable to Succanessett & was one of the 13 who made the first purchase of lands from the aborigines, & commenced the settlement of Falmouth 1660. The 1st house built at Falmouth was Isaac's, and was situated near the south end of "Fresh Pond."

February 7, 1664/5, "Mrs. Isacke Robinson was allowed and approved by the Court to keep an ordinary at Saconcessett for the entertainment of strangers, in regard that it doth appear that theire is great recourse to and fro by travellers to Martin's Vinyards, Natcuket, &."

Isaac removed to Martha's Vineyard in 1673, and was Recorder and Clerk of Tisbury. In 1678, 1680 & 1684, he is named as one of the Selectmen. Like his illustrious father, he had the courage of his convictions, and in 1673 interested himself in the Dutch Rebellion.

His name was on the list as being a member of Barnstable Church for almost 70 years, listed as a "Remote member." Gov. Winslow recognized the injustice that had been done to him in the Quaker controversy and restored him to citizenship in 1673 with what amounted to an apology for the error.

His home in West Tisbury was on the east side of Old Mill River. (This he sold in 1701 to his son Isaac.) He is described as a hale and hearty man up to the time of his death 1704.

will - 28 Oct. 1643

Lived some time in County Norwich, Norfolk, England, "a man worthily reverenced of all the city for the grace of God in him."

Matriculated at Corpus Christi, Cambridge, 1592. Took the degree of A.M. and became a Fellow of said college in 1598. In 1604 he identified himself with the Nonconformists, and in 1608 ^{1606}, "was chosen pastor of the Puritans gathered at the residence of William Brewster at the village of Scoresby (Scrooby) in the Co. of Nottingham." He removed with the church in the winter of 1607/8, to Amsterdam, Holland, where he preached to a band of followers for a year. His flock settled in Leyden, Holland, and became the Pilgrims, whom the Mayflower brought to New England in 1620. His wife was present at the marriage of dau. Bridget, to John Grynwich, a student of theology, May 26, 1629; and signed as a witness.

Record of Rev. John & Bridget's marriage reads: "Mr. John Robynson and Mistress Bridget Whyte, February 15, 1603-4." Book says: the "Mr." and "Mistress" are plainly and distinctly written, indicating that the parties were considered of importance. The entries of the weddings of ordinary parishioners give only the bare names." ("Robinson Genealogy - Desc. of the Rev. John Robinson, Pastor of the Pilgrims" Vol. 1

Hollanders Who Helped Build America (Bernard H. M. Vlekke & Henry Betts - 1942)

Mrs.Richard H. Bready
R. R. 1, Box 451, Knowles Street
Eastham, Massachusetts 02642

21 July 1987

Dear Joyce Clausen,

I was surprised to hear from you but understood immediately after reading your letter. In August 1977 I received a letter from Christine Rose who had seen my query in the Genealogical Helper re: information I wanted on my ancestors of Richard Randolph Rose and his father David. Through her I received her pages on Samuel Rose Family, including the page on Samuel Rose, (Jr.) who m. Chloe Canfield and had 13 children.

The 1st was David b. 20 Oct. 1768 Manchester, Vt. (my ancestor)
3rd was Ezekiel b. 20 June 1971 " " (your ")
5th was Samuel b. 5 Jan. 1974 " " (Margaret Amey)

Since this list gave no marriage or death date for my David, I kept on looking for another David, and never found one that I was satisfied with.

My husband and I went to the area which had been originally named Oswegatchie and later changed to Ogdensburgh and finally just Ogdensburg. I knew my David was there in 1800 as he was listed in the 1800 Census without a family – as David Rooſe of Oswegatchie, Oneida Co., N.Y. In 1802 my David Rose was one of the signers who partitioned for Oneida County to be divided. It was changed from the listing in 1800 Census, to Oswegatchie, St. Lawrence Co., in the 1810 Census. Later the name Oswegatchie was changed to Ogdensburgh for the name of the owner Samuel Ogden, and in the 1840 Census was changed to Ogdensburg, without the "h".

In 1802 David Rose had a son Richard Randolph Rose b. 26 April. I figured he must have married but I still could not find her name. I also had figured David might have come from Ontario section across the St. Lawrence River as I knew that Samuel Ogden had hired a Mr. Nathan Ford to get a settlement started at Oswegatchie. He had brought up a company of men from New York (?City). They had a lot of hard luck en route to the new area and Nathan crossed over into Canada to buy more supplies and get more laborers and I believe David was one of the men who arrived after 1797.

Margaret Amey's name was given to me by another unexpected correspondent. His address on his letter to me gave his address: Mr. Francis R. Jenne, 1 Chestnut St., Potsdam, N.Y. 13676, Certified Public Accountant. On opening the letter I found he didn't want me to hire him as a public accountant, only to help him with his Rose genealogy and perhaps he could help me. He finally gave me Margaret Amey's name and address.

She seemed to object to a Rose having the name of Richard. The Roses according to her all had Biblical names, but perhaps it came from the mother's ancestry. She did give me the name of David's wife as Rachel Jefferies (or Jeffers, Jeffreys). I still haven't been able to trace Rachel's parentage or David's mother Chloe Canfield's parentage.

She did give me a list of David and Rachel's ch. all born before my Richard Randolph Rose. So I took my list of 1810 Census and matched them up as you will see on the accompanying chart.

Dear Margaret,

I was pleased to receive your letter this week and to hear that Francis Jenne is keeping my name in mind. I am Mrs. Amey but usually don't bother with the prefix.

Yes, I do have a David Rose in the family at that time period, but know little about him.

My line: Samuel Rose born c.1710-25 unknown wife Sarah " " " died after 1782 went to Manchester, Vt. as one of the first settlers and proprietors, possibly from 9 Partners, N.Y. There were 9 children listed in the probation of his estate in 1782. The eldest son, also Samuel, born 1745 place unknown, supported the established order and his property was confiscated in 1777. He and wife, Chloe Canfield, came to Lower Canada (Quebec) to live. Samuel 2 died there 1788,9, and widow and children came to live in Edwardsburg township on the St. Lawrence ~~to live~~. This is in Grenville Co. across the river from Ogdensburg. 10 of the 12 children married and settled there and I am descended from the 5th son, Samuel 3, 1774-1825.

The eldest son of Samuel 2 was David b. 1768 probably in Manchester, Vt. and he went to the U.S. probably N.Y. to live. His wife Rachel (Jefferies, Jeffereys, Jeffers?) Order of children not known.
a. Jacob bpt. Williamstown, Ont. 28 May 1793 - 0 more on him.
Family b. Catherine & c. sister Alice married Adams brothers in Johnstown dist.
tradition (ie. Grenville Co.) Ont. Catherine I have found in the census, Gave names was 52 in 1851, and born in U.S. b. 1799 - d. 1877 m. George R. Adams her cousin & Matthias Boughner, see M. Amey letter of 13 Oct. 1986
d. Maria mar. ..... Wasson, Wassoon, in U.S.
e. Harriet Charlotte mar. .... Carr in U.S., was widowed, came to Smiths' Falls area on Ont., marr. Hugh Ross. 1851 census ae 48, born U.S. ✓ I know some of her descendants.

There could easily be more children in the family of whom we have no records. The name Richard does not occur in the Roses. They had all Biblical names. But " could come from the mother's line.

I feel David and his family must have lived close to Grenville Co. Ont. as 3 of his daughters married there, but have no real records on him, except his birth. I have spent years trying to prove the origin of Samuel Rose 1 &/or locate the birthplaces of his children. There were lots of Roses in N.Y, Ct. and Mass. Perhaps if you can link up to this David Rose you will help in the search! We need someone in the New England area to check local records.

Hope to hear from you again soon. I have lots more info on some of the family, if you are interested.

Sincerely yours,

Margaret Amey

Dear Margaret,

I waspleased to hear that you have the Rose report from the Rose Family Association in Cal. Yes, my address has changed since then, although I have not moved. The Post Office decided to wipe out the names of the separate areas in the municipality of Maple Ridge (and other towns in B. C.) so we now all have one address - whichis not on maps and confuses people.

Thank you for the information on David Rose and the family. I certainly wish you luck in research on him and on the wives of the Roses. At the time that report was written (1970s) we were struggling with the assumption that our Roses were connected with the Palatine Rooses in Dutchess Co. N.Y. There was no proof whatever, and I now believe that the idea was one of my uncle's additions in the 1930s and not a family tradition at all. The more I hear about the Roses, the more like Quakers or Puritansthey seem.

There is a Canfield Family Association:
Mrs. Gene Martinson.
1144 N. Gordon
Wichita, KS 07203, and I know of several people through it (¼ly) who are researching Canfields in Ct. and N.Y. There is a newsletter, whichhas contained a lot of interesting material.

I neglected to give you the address of a descendant of David Rose who has done quite a bit of work on Canadian material.
Robert C. Bovee

Bothell, WA. 98011. is descended through Catherine Rose 1799-

1877 dau. of David, who married George R. Adams (her cousin) and Mathias Boughner.

Thank youffor the stamps. Hope you will let me know if you get a lead on Chloe Canfield, or Samuel #1 or #2's birthplaces. I will be most grateful!

Best wishes,

Margaret.

Dear Margaret,

Thank you for your letter with the information on David^3 Rose, b. 1768 and probably in Manchester, Vt. I remembered I had received information on Samuel^1, Samuel^2 & David^3 and his brothers and sisters in August 1977. It came to me in answer to a query I had put in "The Genealogical Helper" re: my search for a David Rose. You will probably recognize the name of the woman who sent it to me - Mrs. Seymour T. Rose of San Jose, Calif. I replied with my ancestry by David and his son Richard Randolph Rose down to myself. In return I received several pages of Rose information including ancestry of Francis Jenne. What really surprised me was when I just checked back to Samuel^1 and Samuel^2, I saw the note at the bottom of the page which hadn't meant anything to me in those days.

TRACED BY: Mrs. Margaret Amey, 23432 River Road
Haney, B.C. Canada V2X7E6

I noticed the address was just a bit different than your present address. I took out my Hammond World Atlas to see where Haney & Maple Ridge were. The larger map showed Haney (listed as having a population of 3,221 in AreaL3 and a bit further to the right was Mission City, population 3,649 same area L3. In a small insert of the area was shown Maple Ridge, population 24,476, lying between the two smaller places. I wondered how it got left out of the bigger map.

The article stated David^3 was born 20 Oct. 1768 Manchester, Bennington Co., Vt. Because there was no information further on David as to marriage, children and his death, I kept trying to find the right David. Mrs. Seymour Rose had never heard of Oswegatchie, New York and didn't even know the County. I could give her that, since my David was one of the signers who petitioned in 1802 for Oneida County to be divided. So it was changed from Oswegatchie, Oneida Co. in the 1800 Census, to Oswegatchie, St. Lawrence Co. in 1810 Census. Later the name was changed to Ogdensburgh for the name of the owner of the settlement, Samuel Ogden. In the 1840 Census the "h" was dropped and it was Ogdensburg, St. Lawrence, County, with the County seat - Canton, not far from where Francis Jenne lives in Potsdam.

With your new information on David, his wife's name and the 6 children and his move to U.S. lead me to believe he is the right David. I will start back a bit.

Mr. Nathan Ford brought up a company of people and supplies from N.Y. city (?), for Samuel Ogden, the man who owned the area. They had a lot of bad luck en route and Mr. Ford then crossed over to Canada to get more supplies and 40 laborers to help build the settlement. The large group of laborers arrived Oswegatchie 11 Aug. 1796. David Rose and 3 men from Conn. whose names I recognized and 2 from Conn. whose names I did not recognize arrived after 1797. I could find no record of a David of Conn. going to New York, and believed he arrived from Canada without his family. As he was listed alone in the 1800 census. His family evidently arrived shortly after that Census. Richard Randolph Rose was b. 26 April 1802. I believe he was named for Mr. Ford's clerk, Richard Randolph. Here's the comparison between the 1810 Census and your list of David^3's children as listed in your letter.

David Rose =	1 male 26-45	David Rose b. 1768	(age ca 42)
	1 female 26-45	Rachel
	1 male 16-26	Jacob b.28 May 1793	(ae ca 17)
	1 female 16-26	Catherine
	2 females 10-16	Alice and Maria
	2 females under 10	Harriet and Almira
	1 male under 10 (Richard Randolph)

Now, I shall have to get busy searching for Rachel, David's wife, and her parentage. Also for Chloe Canfield's parentage. I had tried that back in 1977 but I'll try again and then of course there is Samuel^1's wife Sarah (----). Thank you so much for your information on David and his family. I will let you know if I find any useful information.

Sincerely, Margaret Bready

SAMUEL ROSE FAMILY

OF BENNINGTON COUNTY, VERMONT

Also lived Oneida County, New York; Dutchess Co., New York etc.

NOTE: The following is subject to corrections, additions etc. and is only for the purpose of further research.

SAMUEL ROSE, parentage unknown. His birth is unknown. Dora Duncan, who has researched this family extensively (her address is 705 So. Redwood Rd. #52, Salt Lake City, Utah 84104) states that he was born perhaps about 1700, but that seems to be too early; however, we don't know the births of all the children.

The first record of Samuel Rose is in 1763 in Amenia, Dutchess Co., New York, when he was moderator of a meeting of persons interested in sending a party to appraise land in Vermont which later became Manchester. He became one of the original settlers there about 1768. (Vt. Hist. Proc. Vol. 1 No. 4 - Catherine Hurd data).

Samuel Rose died about 1782 - administrator of his will or estate appointed 27th March 1782. His will (?) names the following children: Samuel, Joel, Joshua, Abraham, heirs of Arra, Rachel Gordon, Elizabeth Allen, Phebe wife of Zebulon Moses, Lydia wife of Elijah Smith, also gives to Samuel Irish, son of Jonathan and Milla Irish of Danby, Vt., one right of land. (Catherine Hurd data).

Probate names wife Sarah and children - Abraham to share 1/2 of home and farm buildings and home lot, with mother Sarah (Dora Duncan data). She adds that probate is Call #F.VT. B25bPt.1, 667.

Samuel Rose migrated to Vermont from Amenia, Dutchess Co., New York about 1764 and built one of the first houses in Manchester. At this time it was part of Charlotte Co., New York. (The town of Manchester was formed 1764).

Some of the marriages of the children were at Manchester, Charlotte Co., New York which later became part of Bennington Co., Vt.

Charles G. Pond Jr. states that he has a copy of a map dated 1788 of New York state, and that Charlotte county is bounded at that time by Canada on the north; Albany Co., New York on the south; Montgomery Co., N.Y. on the west; and Lake Champlain and Vermont on the east. It would appear that later parts of the present counties of Essex, Clinton, Warren, Saratoga, and Washington, all in New York state, came from that county.

Children: OF SAMUEL ROSE. Order uncertain.

David Rose came to Oswegatchie (Ogdensburg) about 1800 (Listed there 1800 census), along with David Judson, Thomas Davies and several other families. They were farmers. The first settlement started earlier than that. A Mr. Nathan Ford brought up a company of people and supplies from N.Y. City (?) for the man who really owned the area. They had a lot of hard luck en route, etc, and he went over into Canada to buy more supplies and get some 40 laborers to help build the settlement. Mr. Nathan Ford had a clerk by the name of Richard Randolph. The large group of laborers arrived there 11 Aug. 1796; David Rose and the others came a few years after 1797.

A James Rose is listed in the 1830 Pierrepont, N.Y., Census. He is on record as having bought land in So. Canton, Feb. 1815, from Richard Harison of Canton. Mrs. Wagner tried to fit him in with her Rose ancestors in So. Canton, Pierrepont & W. Potsdam but no luck. Perhaps belongs to our branch of the Rose line. Might be a brother of our David or an older brother of Richard Randolph Rose.

"St. Law. Rep." (a Nicholville paper) Dec. 6, 1905 (P. 7 col. 4)

" Hiram M. Rose whose death was mentioned in last week's issue, was ~~Mr. Rose~~ born in Vermont ~~but~~ and came to this section with his parents~~, Richard + Harriet Reed Rose, when quite young~~ when but a boy.* (They lived for several years on a part of the Amos Chute farm and afterward on the Port Kent road where William Chambers now resides; and in 1849 they moved on to the farm half a mile north of the Water St. Schoolhouse which has since been the family home. Here they lived, struggled and wrought as only sturdy old Vermonters seem to know how to do, clearing the land first of the forest, then of the stone, then renewing the buildings until they had one of the best farm homes in that section.)*

* ~~they lived on several farms in this locality~~, but at last in 1849 they moved onto the farm on McEwen street, some two miles north of this place. It was there where the father and mother died and the place was left to the management of their son Hiram, in which he was successful, until his health prohibited him from further labors. His son-in-law, Olin F. Denton, has since had charge of the farm and has lovingly cared for the father in his declining years, late sickness and death. When we speak of Mr. Rose we think of him as being a man who was respected and honored by all, a man of marked ability, a great reader who had a wonderful memory. Mr. Rose was thrice married. In 1852 he was united in marriage with Marinda Wetmore of Vermont, who d. in 1853. He then married Jane Hurlbut, whose death occurred in 1876. By this union four daughters were born to them; Candace, now Mrs. C. W. Pearl, of Brockton, Mass.; Minnie, now Mrs. H. A. Breckenridge; Elsie, deceased, and Hattie, who married Olin F. Denton. He then married Miss Louisa Brownell, whose death occurred about two years ago. Mr. Rose was 76 years old and besides his daughters and families he leaves a brother, J. M. Rose, of Winthrop, to mourn his loss. Funeral services were largely attended from the home Sunday, Nov. 26th, Rev. E. M. Noel, of Fort Jackson officiating."

In 1749 a Mission & fort was built at the confluence of the St. Lawrence & Oswegatchie Rivers
Fort Oswegatchie

Ogdensburgh, on Apr 5, 1817, became the 1st incorporated village in St Lawrence County. In 1850 the village became the western terminus of the great Northern Railroad. By 1860 Ogdensburgh was known as "the Maple City" and "the New York of the North".

Apr. 27 1868 Ogdensburg became the only city in St Lawrence County & at the same time dropped the "h" from its name.

In 1851 the Town of Oswegatchie became separate of the village of Ogdensburgh (& of the city of Ogdensburg since 1868.

The growth of Ogdensburgh—or Oswegatchie—as the place was often called—was rapid from 1796. The hamlet became a thriving village in 2 decades

Dear Friend,

I notice your query in the recent GENEALOGICAL HELPER. We publish the ROSE FAMILY BULLETIN and in this connection have gathered thousands of Rose records, many of them in New York.

My map does not show Oswegatchie - can you tell me what county this is? I keep my index by names, and then by county, because of the vast number of records I have. I may find something.

Would be glad to hear from you.

Sincerely,

Christine Rose

Dear Friend,

Many thanks for your letter; am so glad to have more data on your family.

Is the DAVID ROSE family in 1820 census of New York? He is not in the list of Roses that we have, in 1820, but he may have been skipped by Ethel. It is so hard to read that old microfilm, and sometimes it is good if more than one person reads the film.

We do have in 1830:

1830 Census St. Lawrence Co., NY
David Rose p 2 Pierpoint
b. [illegible]-20 1 m 10/15; 1 m 30/40 b. 1790-1800 [illegible]
2 b. 1820-25 2 f 5/10; 1 f 30/40 b. 1790-1800

David Rose p 12 Parishville
b. 1815-20 1 m 10/15; 1 m 15/20; 1 m 20/30; 1 m 30/40; 1 m 40/50 b. 1790-1800 b. [illegible]
1 f und 5; 2 f 10/15; 1 f 15/20; 1 f 40/50 b. 1780-1790
b. 1825-30 b. 1815-20 b. 1810-1815 b. [illegible]

Neither of these has been identified.

In 1840 the only Rose in Ethel's list is the one of her family, aged 30/40, living in Canton.

In 1850 there isn't a David Rose listed that could be yours (though yours could have died before then). However, though Ethel does not show RICHARD ROSE in her list, I do find that in AIS index of 1850 new York there is:

RICHARD ROSE, St. Lawrence Co., p 338, Lawrence

I don't have the actual listing...could he be yours? Did your Richard remain in St. Lawrence County?

In the 1860 census of St. Lawrence County, I believe in Stockholm but the city is not clear from Ethel's notes, there is:

392/383
ROSE, Richard	58	NY	Farmer	$5760/$1500
Harriett	54	Vt.

Next to them is:

393/384
ROSE, Hiram son of Richard	33	Vt.	Farmer
[illegible]	32
Connis ([illegible])	2	Vt.
Marinda	1/12	NY

P.2 (Aug. 31, 1977)

Close is:
389/380

ROSE, James Mason	29	Vt.	Farmer
Alvina	18	Vt.
Harriett Lorraine	6/12	NY

I would assume that Hiram is a son of Richard, and that James might be another son? The Vt. b.p. would indicate that Richard lived there for a time. Or...could Hiram be a much younger brother of Richard?

I would be eager to hear from you as to whether these are the people you seek. Can you give us anything further on Richard Rose - any dates (death etc.), names of children? Did he live in any other location other than St. Lawrence County? We have so many cards under that name, but they are by counties.

You mentioned that we have little on N.E. and N.Y. Not so! Our mss of the Robert Rose is HUGE...the most complete in existence. We started by correlating the known manuscripts, and then found we were able to add much from our own records - census, wills, war records etc. We had planned to print it, but it is huge...at this time we are p~~a~~reparing research reports from it, though we still hope someday to get it into print.

As to New York, we have a great deal on that state, and are adding to it all the time. When we first started the bulletin we had little on New York, and perhaps that is why you thought we didn't.

I think from what Ethel told me that in the Hiram Rose family in 1860 the wife's name was not given, nor the b.p.

I will be interested in hearing further from you, and I'll be glad to help all we can with David's parentage. Do you know at this point if the David in 1830 Parishville, St. Lawrence County is the one you seek?

My list of 1800 Rose in New York state shows only the following DAVID ROSE:

- David Rose Dutchess Co., town Pawling — also 1790 Census 1-1-3
- David Rose, Orange County, town Cheesecoches — 1790 New Cornwall Town Orange Co. 1-2-1
- David Rose, Suffolk Co., town Smithtown
- David Rose, Suffolk County, town South Hampton

I have the actual listings if you'd like them.

1790 Census { Brookhaven Town (nr. Smithtown)
Suffolk Co.
David 1-1-4

Sincerely,

Christine Rose

Dear Friend,

Many thanks for your recent letter and the additional data, which is very helpful.

Is it possible that David Rose is in the 1830 census of Franklin Co., Vt.? Since his son married there in 1828, it seems that it could be a possibility.

I am anxious to identify this David Rose family, and now that I have the data in our master index, I can watch for anything that might connect. Anything atall that turns up as a possible clue I will send on to you.

In the meantime, if you should run into anything further, please let us know for we can then re-check the master index.

Thanks again.

Sincerely,

Christine Rose

P.S. We'd be glad to publish a query for you - no charge. Also, we'd be glad for ANY Rose data you might happen into in your search, as it may help someone else with their Rose line!

Could you pass this

Died: July 28, 1677, New Haven, Conn. (V) 1/2/

Robert came to New England in 1634 with his wife Margery and their eight children. Two younger children were born after they left England. They sailed on the ship Francis 1/ from Ipswich, co. Suffolk, England, 1/3/ in April, 3/ 1634. 1/3/ ("the last of April" 1634) (on same ship with Hugh [illegible] of Malden, co. Essex & [illegible] Mass. [illegible])

Robert was one of the "adventurers" (see footnote 5, p. 67) 1/3/ from Watertown, Mass. in 1635 (or possibly direct from England in 1634), who first settled Pyquaug (later Wethersfield), Conn. He was a soldier in the Pequot campaign; constable in 1639-40; juror in 1641; representative (deputy) to the General Court from 1641 to 1643; and had many offices conferred upon him by the Town and Court. 1/

In 1644, he removed to Totoket (later Branford), Conn. 1/3/ as one of its pioneers, 1/ where shortly after June 7, 1664, he married second, widow Elizabeth of New Haven. He died shortly after his second marriage 1/2/ in 1664 1/ or 1665. 2/ His will was dated Aug. 25, 1664, proved at Branford April 4, 1665, and probably at New Haven Nov. 14, 1666. It devised to widow and eight children, of whom only John, Elizabeth and Mary were named. He gave 6 pounds, 13. to the Branford Church. Inventory of his estate amounted to 826 pounds, 09s, 07d. 1/

When Daniel's father and brothers (John and Jonathan) moved to Branford, Conn. in 1644-5, Daniel and his brother Robert remained in Wethersfield. 3/

Daniel was a freeman in Wethersfield in 1665. 5/ In 1669 he was fence-viewer and in 1680 pound-keeper. He drew lands in the 1670 and 1694 allotments. He bought 112 acres of land in 1663 from Hugh Welles at Red Hill on the east side of the River; in 1666 he bought Thomas Couch's homestead on the west side of Sandy Lane; and in 1670 he bought from Samuel Wyllys the Sherwood homestead of 17 acres on the south side of what is now Pratt's Ferry Road. Jonathan was "hayward" (pounder or impounder of stray cattle) in Wethersfield, Conn. in 1701. In 1711, his mother gave him 1½ acres of land with home, on the north side of the "road to Hartford" (Sandy Lane). He was fence-viewer in Wethersfield in 1714. 1/ His first four children were born in Wethersfield (Wethersfield Records and Mix baptisms). The fourth child, Damaris, was born there Feb. "30", 1713, bapt. Aug. 2, 1713, and died at Wethersfield June 9, 1714. The last record of Jonathan and family in Wethersfield was in 1714.

It appears that Jonathan moved with his family to Durham, Conn. some time between June 9, 1714, when their daughter Damaris died, and before Jan. 13, 1716-17, on which date Jonathan and Abigail Rose had a son Daniel baptized at Durham (Church rec. 7/). Their first daughter born in Durham was named Damaris S. They had three sons born in Durham before Damaris S. was born.

Fowler[7] says that Jonathan was of Durham, Conn. and Granville, Mass., had twelve children, and that his granddaughter "Debrah" Rose married Stephen Spelman (see p. 138). Deborah Rose (p. 202) was the daughter of Justus Rose, son of Jonathan. Wilson[6] says Jonathan went from Durham to Enfield, Conn., where he "operated a saw mill" for a few years before moving to Granville, Mass.

Jonathan is mentioned in the early deeds and the Church and town records of Enfield.[8] The town records there show that on Feb. 18, 1733-4, a daughter Caroline Rose was born to Jonathan Rose and Abigail his wife. (His son Jonathan Jr., at this time was living in Durham where Jonathan Jr.'s son Israel was bapt. Oct. 13, 1734, and Jonathan Jr. was still living there in 1746 when his son Zebulon was baptized there).

On July 24, 1734, a deed of sale was made at Enfield, Conn., from Nathaniel Gary, husbandman, "to Jonathan Rose, miller, of a grist mill and all utensils thereunto belonging", and on April 23, 1735, a deed of sale from Jonathan Rose, miller, to Thomas Judd, weaver, of Northampton, Mass. of the same grist mill. At the Jan. 6, 1736-7 town meeting of Enfield, Jonathan was paid 02 pounds, 12s, 00d for boarding widow Hale the school teacher, and at the Dec. 19, 1737 town meeting he was paid by the town for use of his team in highway work. The Church and Public Records show that Jonathan's son David was married at Enfield: "David Rose of Durham to Elizabeth Fowler of Springfield, Mass., Nov. 10, 1734". 8/ David's first two children were born in Durham, Conn., 7/ before he moved to Granville, Mass. in 1741.

In 1741, the proprietors of Bedford Plantation (later Granville), Mass., 9/ offered 100 acres of land in Bedford "to anyone who would come there and live, make a clearing in the wilderness build an abode and have six acres in grass at the end of three years". Jonathan's son David "who lived in Durham heard about this promised land" went to Bedford "looked the place over, liked it so well that he picked out his 100 acres, built a cabin, started his clearing and moved his family there. He also purchased 1500 acres more in 1741". Wilson says that either David Rose had great powers of persuasion, or else he was looked up to as a man of good judgment, for as a result of his Granville, Mass. was at first called Bedford Plantation, it became a district in 1754, and the town of Granville in 1775. The Proprietors of Bedford Plantation were non-resident (absentee) proprietors, and held most of their meetings in Boston, Mass. In response to a petition by the proprietors of Bedford for a clear title to the land, the General Court required a population of 70 settlers at Bedford by Jan. 9, 1741. This number was not reached until later, the proprietor's authority lapsed, and in Nov., 1749, the settlers petitioned the General Court for authority to elect officers and raise taxes. On June 20, 1750, a list of the settlers was drawn up to be sent to the General Court, at which time there were 76 settlers and 73 dwelling houses.

A District had all the privileges of a town except representation at the General Court.

settling in Bedford no less than 26 other families very soon came there from Durham. 9/

Jonathan was granted as his "settling land" in Bedford Plantation the lot laid out as the saw mill lot. Of the 29 "original settlers" of Bedford Plantation who signed the petition to the General Court in 1749, Jonathan and his sons Daniel, Justus, David, and John were five of the signers. On the list of settlers of June 20, 1750, Jonathan and his sons Sharon, David, Daniel, John, Justus and Elisha were listed. Jonathan's son Jonathan was living in Bedford by Oct. 4, 1753, when Elizabeth, daughter of Jonathan Rose Jr. and Lidea, was born there. 9/

THOMAS^1 ROSE

The first knowledge of him is gleaned from the Land Records of Stonington, Conn., where, Feb. 17, 1669, Robert Fleming bought land for his use and behoof, and the deed of sale was resigned into his hand as properly belonging to him. This land was laid out to him May 4, 1678, adjoining land of Thomas Edwards and son. Dec. 8, 1674, Robert Fleming made over to him, "my son-in-law," all the land he had purchased Sept. 30,1669, of Aaron Stark. Jan. 2, 1681, one hundred acres of land was laid out to the widow Fleming, according to the grant of Robert Fleming, deceased. July 18 or 8, 1681, Joanna Fleming gave unto her son, Thomas Rose, one hundred acres of land, which she approved as Joanna Olmstead, Sept. 15, 1687. July 8, 1681, Joanna Fleming gave to her daughter, Mary Rose, the house & land where she was dwelling. From above facts it may be conjectured that Joanna married (1) ------- Rose, (2) Robert Fleming; (3) ------- Olmstead. That she had two Rose children, Thomas & Mary, who, as further deeds show, inherited all the land of Robert Fleming.

Thomas Rose was probably born about 1653, taking it for granted that he was twenty-one yrs. old when his stepfather deeded him land in 1674. He died May 1744, at,it is said, a good old age, leaving an estate of £2498; he had previously given some of his children portions of land. He sold the considerable property he had in Stonington, Conn., and purchased land which was partly in the town of New London and partly in Norwich, the boundary line of the two towns being marked by a large tree located on his farm. He built a house on the hill now known as Rose Hill. He served as sergeant in the Indian wars.

A tradition in the family is that a young widow, whose husband was killed in a battle, fled from England to America with her infant son to save him from being slain by the enemy. She lived in the wigwam of an Indian squaw to better conceal her identity. When peace was declared she went to England and obtained her property there and then returned to America. From her son the Roses of Preston are descended.

ROSE FAMILY - Marshfield, Mass. & Georgetown, Maine

by Mrs. Ellsworth (Mina E.) Hayden

"There is a family tradition that three Rose brothers came to the New World. One settled in the south, two in New England. This seems to be proven by the fact that Robert Rose came to Watertown, Mass. about the time that Thomas Rose settled in Plymouth Colony, and a third one in the south.

Robert Rose did not remain long in Mass. but went to Wetherfield, Conn. and founded the Conn. Rose branch. He came from Ipswich, England, and some authorities call Thomas his brother, while others do not mention the relationship.

Ross the committee went to the shop of Betsy Ross at 239 Arch Street & engaged her to make the flag from a design drawn up by Washington & Col. Ross. Her sample flag was accepted by the comm. & adopted as the national flag by Congress June 14, 1777. After this she rec'd the contract to make all gov't flags & held it for many years. Her dau. Nov. 13th

Dear Mig,

Have checked my books and umpteen pages of Rose info (much of the latter from you perhaps) and am enclosing what little I have found. All of which, or maybe none of which,may be of any use to you or your inquirers. Well, at least I tried.

Seems as though other people are trying to trace the elusive Samuel Rose. I saw an inquiry in the HIGHLANDER (a magazine about Scottish people and Scotland and so on - I did not renew - too many magazines - got to cut down, but Frances Twitchell's son loaned me his latest issue and says he's going to continue doing that) A lady down in Florida wants info on Samuel Rose - she says b. ca 1725 - and 1st known in Amenia, N.Y. - wants parentage, b. place, whether here in America or was he an immigrant -says he m. a Sarah. I wish her luck.

Add to my book list - Ontarian Families (Chadwick); B. & M. Registers, Old Dutch Church, Kingston, N.Y.; Early History of Tolland, Conn.; and Bradley of Essex County (Peters). Maybe I listed these last time. Am going to have to quit buying books. Running out of space to shelve them. Not to mention the ever increasing cost of books lately.

Had our first snowstorm of the season on the 6th - a real humdinger. Second one on the 11th but that disappeared practically completely by the next day. Ok by me. Still waiting for man to come hlep put up the "caboose" (enclosure by back door). A few "spits" in the air this morning - I hope that's all because I am due to be over to the garage this afternoon to have snow tires put on and final check up before winter, etc.

Wish this typewriter would spell for me - I seem to be either adding unnecessary letters or twisting words around (all the right letters but in the wrong places). or running words together. See what I mean?

No plans yet for Thanksgiving dinner - have been going with Frances and her son and daughter-in-law for several years. Haven't been invited yet. Can always open a can of tuna or roast beef hash. Think I did that once years back - when I was supposed to be going with "Pete" (my sister-in-law) and then she evidently forgot and said she was invited with some of her relatives. So be it. I won't go hungry anyway.

She and I do have a date to go down to Chef's Table the Sun. before Thanksgiving when they put on their annual splurge - $2.95 for senior citizens - $5.95 to other folks. Same thing pre-Christmas and Easter. And always a fine meal, all you can eat.

Lita made the suggestion and I heartily agreed - that we cut down on Christmas spending. Late years it got so we were spending more and more. And why? As I keep telling her - I don't need any more clothes; nor linens, towels, etc.; dishes; books; jewelry; gadgets - whatever. At my age I don't need or want any more things I don't have room for! So we decided just six gifts under the tree for each other. Of course, she'll have things from Peggy and Doris to bring along - and gifts from her school chum, Martha, who lives over in Bridgton and will be over to visit while Lita is here. We could maybe have a few very small things on the table Christmas morning - don't know what that might be - mayb one of those little "sampler" boxes of chocolates???? She is not going to have as much time up here this year as their friend is coming back from So. Africa for the holidays and they want to get back to VA so they can have some time together with her.

Peggy is going on a new job in Dec. Same agency, I believe, but in a different office - where the atmosphere (?) will be more cordial. Glad for her. She has been having a rough time in present place. Unfriendly. In fact, Lita told me last night, that now most of Peggy's co-workers won't even speak to her since she got this chance. Sour grapes? Nice people?

Supposed to get down in the deep freeze tonight - think the radio weatherman said 5 to 15. That sounds COLD to me. Winter is really pushing.

Nothing much else to report from this neck of the woods.

MAKE IT A NICE DAY down your way.

Love,

Alice

P.S. Thanks for the poems - although I disagree about seventy being YUCKY - it may not be the best but it's better than nothing!
Re: Ginia's "Gone to the Dogs" - I see she's still "wondering.
